Benefits of membership of the National Family Support Network:

As a member of the National Family Support Network, a group, network, organization or individual helps to ensure the development of the best possible services for family members living with substance misuse. We achieve this through:

- Support of group / network
- Priority invitations to all events
- Priority for all printed literature of the NFSN
- Priority for all training
- Referral agency
- Support for funding applications
- Use of premises
- Input into policy development
- Support with developing and implementing group policies
- Forum to raise issues
- Networking
- Free copy of Quality Standards and Guideline for each member attending Quality Standards Roadshow.

In becoming members of the National Family Support Network, groups and networks are required to adhere to the Quality Standards and Group Guidelines of the National Family Support Network. The Quality Standards Framework takes our already high standard of commitment to best practice to a higher level. The Quality Standards Framework strives to ensure family members all over Ireland will receive a higher quality of best practice and consistent support from our affiliated groups and members.

For information about our Next Quality Standards Roadshow please do not hesitate to give us a call.

If you have any questions regarding membership of the National Family Support Network, please feel free to call us on 01-898 0148 or email us at info@fsn.ie or development@fsn.ie
